

Session	Chair	Start	Item	Speaker
		09:15	Registration and coffee
Welcome		09:45	Opening address	Jim Hall, University of Oxford
Session 1: UK	Dr Pam Berry, University of Oxford	10:00	Introduction to the session	Dr Pam Berry, University of Oxford
		10:05	Drought hydrology on a national scale	Dr Gemma Coxon, University of Bristol
		10:25	The impact of droughts on the water quality of the River Thames	Dr Gianba Bussi, University of Oxford
		10:45	Effects of drought on UK ecosystems and the implications for nature conservation in a changing climate	Dr Mike Morecroft, Natural England
		11:05	Pico Posters	Poster presenters
Morning Break		11:15
Session 2: UK	Dr Bettina Lange, University of Oxford	11:40	Introduction to the session	Dr Bettina Lange as chair
		11:45	Co-producing knowledge for local drought resilience	Prof Sarah Whatmore and Dr Catharina Landstrom, University of Oxford
		12:05	Drought Management Practice in the UK – Opportunities to Overcome Innovative Scarcity	Dr Kevin Grecksch, University of Oxford
		12:25	Water Resource Management in the UK	Dr Doug Hunt, Atkins
		12:45	Moving to a national approach to water management	Ian Pemberton, Ofwat
Lunch		13:05
Session 3: The World	Dr Vicky Bell, CEH	13:55	Introduction to the session	Dr Vicky Bell as chair
		14:00	Water law and drought in Australia	Prof Lee Godden, University of Melbourne, Australia
		14:30	Drought indicators – their usefulness for the assessment of drought types, impacts and management	Prof Henny van Lanen, Wageningen University, Netherlands
		15:00	Pico Posters	Poster presenters
Afternoon Break		15:10
Session 4: The World	Prof. Jim Hall, University of Oxford	15:35	Introduction to the session	Prof Jim Hall as chair
		15:40	Key Note Presentation Transboundary Rivers and Adaptation to Climate Extremes (TRACE): Learning from Severe Droughts	Dr Dustin Garrick, University of Oxford
		16:25	Panel Questions	All presenters
		16:55	Closing comments	Jim Hall
Drinks		17:00	Post Symposium Reception – all welcome
Dinner		19:00	Dinner - for pre-booked delegates only	